Russia May Charter Several Danish Steamers in Emergency.

All Steamship Agents in Port Arthur Have Been Asked for Specifications-Four Hundred Men of the Twelfth Regiment Have Gone to the Front-Alexieff May Choose Time for Delivering Reply

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES!

NEW YORK, Feb. 6. — [Exclusive Eispatch.] The Herald this morning publishes the following:

PORT ARTHUR, Feb. 5, 6:06 p.m.-Wednesday the Russian fleet, with twenty torpedo boats, left Port Arthur, followed by a transport. Their departure caused much excitement, but part of the fleet returned yesterday, and the remainder will probably come back today. The government has asked all steamship agents in Port Arthur to send specifications of all charterable steamers coming there with a present disputching of Russian warships to Korean waters is impossible under the company of the company view of transporting troops. It displays feverish anxiety regarding the position of such vessels. The government will probably charter several Danish steamers. A Russian firm has already chartered nearly twenty vessels.

Four hundred men of the Twelfth Regiment left by railway for the front Wednesday. An official statement of the situation says that the Third Brigade has gone to occupy new stations on the railway. The place of these troops will be taken by a new brigade. The spirit of both soldiers and sailors is excellent. They are patiently awaiting the end of the Third East Siberian Rife Brigade, which recently left Port Arthur, are taking temporary stations along the Chinese road. The Port Arthur garrison has been strengthened by the arrival there of the Seventh Brigade of

The contents of the response contain important concessions, although maintaining Russia's former position on some of the main points covering Manchuria and Korea. Korea has come to the front again, and Russia cannot agree to appanese fortifications in the southern part of that country. The news that the note had been sent to Viceroy Alexies caused increased anxiety today. On the bourse, the prices of securities, particularly imperial four per cent. and lottery bonds, in which the public invests heavily, dropped.

In the diplomatic corps there was much activity and conferring. The Japanese minister, M. Kurino, in response to an urgent message, went to the British embassy and spent over an hour with the ambassador. Sir Claude Scott.

Advices from Viadivostok say over a thousand Japanese girls embarked there for Japan yesterday and that three other steamers are on the point of sailing for Japan with Japaneses families, including many who left the Nikolskoye and Ushuri regions Wednesday last.

At all the embassies attaches are busy getting off cipher dispatches to their governments. The people, for the first time, seem noticeably moved at the prospect of war, gathering in groups to discuss the situation. Increased activity also was apparent at the various ministries, but the high officials remained calm, insisting that a peaceful settlement is still possible.

Officials say the military and naval preparations have been forced on Russia by the open and hurried demonstrations by Japan, and that misinterpretations are being constantly placed on Russia's movements in the Far West.

DOMINICAN REBS INSULT THE FLAG.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

SANTO DOMINIGO, Monday, Feb. 1—[Wired from Chicago, Feb. 5.] The insurgents this morning deliberately fired on the launch of the auxiliary cruiser Yankee, killing J. C. Johnston, the engineer. The bullet entered his head above the eye.

United States Minister Powell has directed the tain of the Yankee to take drastic measures to avenge Johnston's death and the insult to the American flag.

Johnston will be buried on shore this afternoon. PROTECTION FOR GERMANS.

SANTO DOMINGO, Jan. 30.-[Wired from Chicago, Feb. 6.] The German Consul here has requested United States Minister Powell to afford protection to Herr Worrman, the German Vice-Consul, that he might bring his family into the city as the insurgents have given Mr. Worrman forty-eight hours to leave where he is, or suffer the consequences.

Consequently, Mr. Powell secured a guard of sixty men from the United States cruiser Columbia and informed the government that it was the intention of the German Consul and himself to bring Herr Worrman's family to the city, and asked the government that its troops not fire upon this party while it was on its mission. He said that if fired upon this ty would protect themselves. The guard started out. As soon as they passed outside the city they were covered by the guns of the Columbia. No attack was made, and the Worrman family and their belongings were brought back here in safety.

All the houses outside the city walls have been pillaged. The insurgents are desperate, and are destroying foreign property wherever they find it. Mr. Powell has received urgent appeals to protect foreign property against this pillaging, and the Columbia may be compelled to land marines to do so.

The firing around the city continues. The situation is serious. The prices of provisions are very high, and the poor are suffering from want of food. SURROUNDED BY INSURGENTS.

SANTO DOMINGO, Jan. 81.-[Wired from Chicago, Feb. 6.]- The United States auxiliary cruiser Yankee and the Spanish cruiser Rio de La Plata have arrived here, and the United States cruiser Columbia has left for Guantanamo.

It is rumored today that Santa Barbara de Samanta and Sanchez have been retaken by the insurgenta.

This city is surrounded by insurgents. They have sent to the government a demand that the city surrender within twenty-four hours, threatening otherwise to enter it by force. . The government has made no reply to this demand, and an attack is expected. The fortifications are strongly guarded, and preparations are being made to resist the insurgents.

That work, therefore, will necessarily devolve upon his subordinates in the organization of the National Republican Committee. possible for him to take charge of the next Presidential campaign. After removing himself, by repeated decla-rations, from the list of Presidential candidates, he is now removed from even taking part in the campaign.

The President, whose sturdy char-acter prevented meddlers from mak-ing trouble between himself and Senposted constantly regarding Hanna's condition, but today he felt that he nust find out for himself just how must find out for himself just how the Ohio Senator was, so he walked over from the White House to the Ar-lington Hotel; called at Senator Han-na's apartments and made personal inquiries. Of course he did not see Senator Hanna, but he remained at the apartments some minutes, inquiring about the progress of the case. Gov. THE DIAGNOSIS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Senai Hanna is officially pronounced to have typhoid fever. The following bulletin was issued by his physicians, imme-was issued by his physicians, immediately after the consultation at 9 o'clock this morning;

"Senator Hanna has typhoid fever. The diagnosis is confirmed by the complete blood examination reported this morning by Dr. Edward Behrond. The Senator rested fairly well last night, and this morning his temperature is 100; pulse $2."

Dr. Behrond is a n.icroscopic expert. He made two tests. The first one showed the presence of typhoid bacillus. The second test was made to confirm the first one. Those in consultation of the case were Dr. Rixey, who has been Hanna's regular attending physician here; Dr. Magruder and Dr. Behrond.

The President walked over from the

Dr. Behrond.

The President walked over from the White House this morning personally to inquire after the Senator's condition. He talked earnestly about the case with Elmer Dover, secretary to Mr. Hanna, for ten minutes, and expressed his warm sympathy.

No one except his regular household is permitted to see the Senator. His sole diet is milk, and no stimulants are being used. He rested fairly comfortable during the night. Mrs. Hanna insists on personally attending the patient much of the time, but another trained nurse began duty today. The tient much of the time, but another trained nurse began duty today. The physicians say that the outlook is hopeful for recovery, and that the crucial point in the illness should be passed in about a week. They say that the case is what is known as irregular typhoid, and is less serious than most cases of that illness.

The family, it is said, instead of being alarmed at the diagnosis of typhoid, were relieved at the announcement, feeling that there might have been another development of much more gravity. The physicians are now making a test of the condition of the kidneys. It is realized that the Senator's advanced age and his rheunattic condition make the case a more serious one than in a younger man, but the condition make the case a more serious one than in a younger man, but the belief is expressed by his family that he will recover, though he will be confined to his bed for a considerable period. The plan is to take him to Thomasville, Ga., as soon as he is able to be moved.

The question of sending for the members of Senator Hanna's family was discussed with the physicians this morning, and it was decided that it was not necessary at present to send

DOCTOR'S STATEMENT. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The follow

"Dr. Osler of Johns Hopkins University, who examined Mr. Hanna several days ago, called again today and had a conference with Drs. Rixey and Magnider. After the consultation. Dr. gruder. After the consultation, Dr. Rixey issued the following statement: The Senator's general condition is good: There are no complications. His temperature was at 101 6-10; pulse an."

dent called at the Arlington Hotel dur ing the day to inquire about Senator Hanna's condition. He saw Mr. Do-ver, with whom he conversed for ten minutes about the sick man.

Five physicians were in attendance today, being Dr. Rixey, the regular physician; Dr. Magruder, Dr. Brewer from New York, Dr. Behronden, an expert, who examined the Senator's blood for typhoid indications, and Dr. Oster, the expert diagnostician from Baltimore, who will continue in consultation with the other physicians during the Senator's illness.

The physicians are unable to say where the Senator caught the typhoid fever. There is a typhoid fever epidemic at Columbus, O., where the Senator visited last month. He left there about the 13th ult., and became ill nine days after that time, the length of time that medical authorities give for the breaking-out of the fever infection. A great number of inquiries, telegraphic, mail and personal; are reaching here about Senator Hanna's condition.

reaching here about Senator Hanna's condition.

Gov. Herrick called over the long-distance telephone from Columbus, O., tonight, to inquire after the Senator and asked to be kept informed of the progress of the case. Mr. Dover told him he believed the situation thus far is not alarming.

Dr. Rixey called to see the Senator shortly after 8 o'clock. His object was simply to take Mr. Hanna's temperature, which he found at that time to be 1:02 2-5, higher, he remarked later, than it had been at any time since he has been attending the Senator. This, however, the doctor did not consider alarming, as it might be due to certain local causes not directly the result of fever. The 8 o'clock call was the last that Dr. Rixey intended to make for the night, unless something unexpected should occur.

The most satisfactory aspect of the unless something unexpected should occur.

The most satisfactory aspect of the case today apparently to the Senator's family and friends was the cheerful and bright manner of the Senator, despite his almost utter prostration. This they attribute in part to the slightest kind of an improvement to his general condition, and to his relief at the announcement of the exact character of the disease which thus removed his own and his family's uncertainty in the matter. Yoday, the Senator took milk nourishment several times, retaining it on his stomach without apparent discomfort. Certain pains which he had experienced in the stomach were relieved by the administration of a sedative.

Late tonight, the physicians declare there is nothing immediately alarming its Senator Hanna's condition, provided was reconsidered on the Senator Parameter of the provided parameter.

'BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—In the postal trial todsy, Mrs. Martha J. Lorenz of Toledo, O., denied all knowledge of any tranaction in connection with the sale of Groff letter-box fasteners. The four checks which she at different times gave her husband, who endorsed them over to Machen, she said, she signed solely because her husband requested her to do so, and without inquiring into their purpose. She had absolute faith in him, she said. Mrs. Lorenz was perfectly sool on the stand. and promptly answered the questions put to her by her counsel.

During almost the entire day, George E. Lorenz was under cross-examination. He denied that he ever sought Machen's influence to further the introduction of the Groff fastener to the postal service.

Just before the afternoon session, Justice Pritchard summoned into his private room the jury and counsel on both sides. He announced to them that two jurrors had informed him of the receipt of several letters bearing on the case, which represented that they ought to stand by the government. It is understood that government counsel disavowed any responsibility for the communications, while counsel for the defense availed themselves of the opportunity to say that neither by word nor act had any attempt been made by

REGULAR SESSION. [BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESE-A.M.] WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.-SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—SENATE.—
In his prayer at the opening of the Senate today, the chaplain, Rev. Edward Everett Hale, made reference to the illness of Senator Hanna, saying: "Father, we ask for those who are in great sorrow; we ask for those who are on the bed of sickness; we ask for those who are ministering to them—that Thou will give them life and light Mr. Mitchell, from the Committee on Postoffices, made a favorable report on General to send to the Senate the reports made on the irregularities in the Postoffice Department, and requested immediate consideration. The resolution was adopted without debate. It calls for report on the investigation by Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow, together with the reports of Messrs. Holmes, Conrad and Charles 3. Bonaparte, special counse, for the government, on the charges made by S. W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice.

Porto Rico to and from the United States next summer, for the purpose of study.

The Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Bill was laid before the Senate, the proposition for a loan to the St. Louis exposition being the immediate question under consideration, and Mr. Patterson of Colorado took up the political phase of the question, making a special reply to Mr. Foraker. He said that, having noted the want of prosperity on the part of the trusts and syndicates, the Ohlo Senator had introduced a bill which, if it should become law, would supply that deficiency. Mr. Patterson said that prosperity was not so much dependent upon tariff laws or the balance of trade as most people believed. On the contrary, he found that good times depended more upon the volume of currency than en other causes, and traced the prosperity of the decade from 1880 to 1890 to the extension of the coinage of silver in that period.

This epoch characterized Mr. Cleve-

This epoch characterized Mr. Cleve-land's first term, but Mr. Patterson de-clared that when Democrats contended This epoch characterized Mr. Clevelandy sity, who examined Mr. Hanna several days ago, called again today and had a conference with Drs. Dr. Osler immediately returned to Baltimore.

THE PRESIDENT CALLS.

IBY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.1

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The President called at the Arlington Hotel during the day to inquire about Senator Hanna's condition. He saw Mr. Dover, with whom he conversed for ten minutes about the sick man. Five physicians were in attendance today, being Dr. Rixey, the regular physician; Dr. Magruder, Dr. Brewer from New York, Dr. Behronden, an expert, who examined the Senator's blood for typhoid indications, and Dr. Oster, the expert diagnostician from Baltimore, who will continue in consultation with the other physicians during the Senator's illness.

pense of others. He spoke in strong terms of admiration of the President's action in connection with the anthracite coal strike and in his suits against the railroad mergers, but declared that in the prosecution of trusts the President's action had been far short of promises, inasmuch as only two or three actions had been begun. He compared the offenses of Whittaker Wright to the conduct of J. P. Morgan and Schwab, and then entered into the details of Wright's trial by a British court and his subsequent suicide, adding that "there would not be many tears shed if some of the great financial lights who find their habitation in the United States should seek the same ending from the same cause."

Recurring to the silver issue, Mr. Patterson said that even the people of Colorado realized that the issue of 16 to 1 had been decided against them, but it did not follow, he said, that they would throw themselves into the arms of the trusts.

I had been decided against them, but it did not follow, he said, that they would throw themselves into the arms of the trusts.

He referred to Mr. Bryan, saying: "I am glad that there is one man in the party with power and influence enough to make himself felt, who enters his protest against surrendering the party to those who go from one end of the political teeter to the other, as their interests seem to require."

Mr. Patterson reasserted his conviction that the nomination of Mr. Bryan by the Chicago convention of 1896 had insured a far larger vote than any other candidate or another platform would have secured. He then announced his intention not to press for a further recognition of free coinage by the Democratic party, saying that "the party is worse than insane when it continues to advocate a policy which the country has declared against." Such a course would destroy the usefulness of any party.

Mr. Patterson spoke in terms of regret at the growth of Socialism, and attributed it to the policies of the Republican party. Again declaring that the wealthy were getting the benefit of the prosperous times. Mr. Patterson expressed the hope that at its next convention the Democratic party would nominate a candidate not tainted with suspicion of an alliance with persons of this character.

Mr. Patterson having concluded, the question of, sustaining Mr. Bailey's point of order was placed before the Senate. There was no roil call, but there was an overwhelming response of "Noes," and the point was lost. That settled the question, and the amendment was agreed to. The Urgent Deficiency Bill then was passed.

Mr. Spooner withdrew his motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill for the naturalization of the Porto Ricans and residents of other insular possessions of the United States was passed, and the favorable action of the Senate returned to the consideration of the canal question. taking up the Bacon resolution providing for the friendly adjustment of the differences.

MALLORY REVIEWS EVENTS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.: WASHINGTON, Feb. 5,-Mr. Mai-ory reviewed the events leading up to WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Mr. Mailory reviewed the events leading up to the negotiations of the treaty, declaring that Colombia had not acted in good faith in connection with the Hay-Herran treaty. He accepted as final and conclusive the President's denial of the charge of complicity in the secession of Panama, and took issue with those who criticised the President for not turning to Nicaragua after the failure of the negotiations with Colombia. He failed, he said, to find justification of the plea that there has been no violation of international law in recognizing the independence of Panama, although he considered that there had been precipitancy in that act.

The recognition given by the United States under the circumstances was a just provocation for war by Colombia against the United States and said the orders issued by the United States to our naval commanders in the isthmian waters were unjustifiable under the circumstances. But notwithstanding these objections, he said he intended to vote for the treaty.

discussion on the proposed amendment, Mr. Burleson of Texas read the following extract from the testimony given by Secretary Wilson before the Committee of Agriculture relative to black leg:

"Black leg is a disease that affects young animals, mostly calves. The people find great difficulty in getting serum that is powerful enough to treat it. We make it here for probably one-tenth of one cent a dose, and we send out a million and a half doses free to the people, and the result is that where-ever we send it black leg disappears.

"We are pushing this work with the theory that if we can prevent it, black leg will die out. It is the same with rables. If you muzzle every dog in the District of Columbia, and allow no other dog to come in, the rables will not come in. That is the theory on which we are trying to experiment with black leg, and we are succeeding."

An amendment was adopted to prevent the adulteration of grass seeds.

The Agricultural Appropriation Bill was then passed, and at 5:15 o'clock p.m., the House adjourned until Monday.

The people of Adams street have shown a willingness to move in this matter, and they would probably be willing to accept any reasonable burden in the way of improvements that would make the street a sort of boulevard, provided they had this nuisance removed. Cer-tainly the Council should do something If this project of selecting an individ ual street, of special residence character, and protecting it from ruin by should suggest some other method.

CUBA LIBRE.

If any promises have been made to Cuba that have not been carried out now is the time to report thereon. With the withdrawal of the last United States trooper from the Gem of the Antilles there goes the last limb upon which the kickers might have hoped to hang an argument that the country sign in its efforts to free Cuba from Spanish oppression and to make life therein worth living. When one stops p consider the condition of the Cubans prior to the outbreak of the war becannot but be impressed with the opin-ion that President Palma has been none too generous or gracious in expressing himself regarding the indebtedness the new republic owes to her big sister on the mainland, and if he be a true American he has a right to fee as many big sticks as possible, each one proud of his country that it has not only freed Cuba but has kept every promise to her with fidelity, honesty and good faith. With the rain coming down and the prospect for a crop made much better than it was two days ago, together than it was two days ago, together with the fact that railroad earnings show increase, there would seem to be no valid reason why a union railway station for Los Angels should not be among the early probabilities in our midst.

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY, GENERAL MANAGER'S OFFICE, LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4, 1994.

ADVERTISING IN THE TIMES—COMPARA-TIVE STATEMENTS FOR JANUARY, 1903, AND JANUARY, 1904.

In response to inquiries from ousiness men. I now make the following authoritative statements, showing the respective amounts of paid advertising matter of all kinds printed in the Los Angeles Times for the months of January, 1903, and January, 1904, respectively. The revised figures have been made up from the files and other records of the office, after two careful measurements, and may be relied upon as correct. They are subject to verification by any patron who may apply at the office for that purpose.

The record shows the following totals: For the month of January, 1904, The Times printed a total of 64,147 inches of paid advertising matter, as against 63,884 inches in the same month of the preceding year, showing a gain of 263 inches in that single month.

The volume of classified advertising (that is to say, "Wants" and other "Liners") taken separately for the months named, shows that there was printed in January, 1904, an aggregate of 22,761 inches, as against 18,659 inches for the same month in 1903, showing a gain of 4102 inches, or over 195 columns. This class of advertising, when added to all other classes printed during the month of January, 1904, made up the total of 64,147 inches above stated, being an aggregate of something over 3000 columns in Both the other morning newspapers of Los Angeles, as shown by measurements made, printed an aggregate of 59,392 inches in January, 1904—one of them printing 30,832 inches and the other 28,510 inches. A compar ison with the figures given by Times for itself shows that this paper printed about ten per cent more advertising in the month named than did the other two Los Angeles morning newspapers combined. The two evening newspapers combined printed an aggregate of 35,530 inches only for the entire month—one of them printing 19,234 inches and the other 16,296 inches.

In order to make my statement still more complete as respects The Times advertising, I give the total figures for each of the years 1902 and 1903, respectively. They are as follows: For 1903, 35,096 columns; for 1902, 30,172 columns; gain, 4924 columns.

I go still further and give the average circulation for each of the two years last named, which was as follows: For 1903, 36,648 copies: for 1902, 31,240 copies; gain, 5408 copies.

The results here shown as to the January advertising, large as they are, would, I feel confident, have been still larger had it not been for the exceptionally dry season which is now unfortunately on in our part of the State, but which, we all trust, will disappear with the coming

I welcome the inquiries which have been made of me in these respects, and am glad to furnish the desired information, which s taken from our carefully-kept records, and may be depended upon as accurate and reliable. [Signed] H. G. OTIS, resident and General Manager,

The Times-Mirror Company

Friday Morning.

A. C. Dodds, chief probation officer of the Los Angeles Juvenile Court, in addressing the members of the Friday Morning Club yesterday, stated that his subject, "The Reclamation of Criminals," is a far cry from the subjects the women are accustomed to listen to, but is giving his lively and interesting account of his long experience in this work he traced in almost every case the origin of the criminal to the lack of a proper home, or home training in early years and thus brought the subject to a plane where mothers and women are nearly and vitally concerned. Lack of obedience to constituted authority, he thinks, is the beginning of trouble, always, and this great principle of obedience should be taught in the home.

"No man is hopeless, no matter what his record," is the view which this successful reclaimer of criminals takes, and he related touching instances which had come under his observation as illustrations. The maudiin sentiment of idiotic men and the gush of silly women over the most hardened criminals, he showed up in the true aspect, and also told how the recipients despise such.

Mr. Dodds closed with an appeal to

The practice of head hunting, which he dwelt upon as their most striking and revolting characteristic, has been almost stamped out by determined English rule. One could but feel in listening to Gov. Dunlop, that the quiet forcefulness of this man before them probably had not a little to do with the improved condition of afairs. Formerly a coy maiden, wooed by a persistent lover, inquired of him if he had never done this worthy deed, he immediately set forth and deprived some man, woman or child—generally child—of his or her head, performing his errand in the most cowardly and un-bero-like manner. Upon his return to his own village a great feast was made and this eating and drinking and dancing, said Gov. Dunlop, always figured as the chief social function.

According to the Governor, Borneo must, in some ways, be a good place for women, for, though a wife is bought by her husband, she still remains the property of her father and mother, and the father-in-law may fine a delinquent husband for mistreating this valuable effect. With few clothes to worry about, a frill and some beads at the most; food growing almost without cultivation, no native religion or bother about the hereafter; with a jolly disposition and a rooted distaste to labor of any sort, the native of Borneo sems to be in a pretty comfortable state, especially since the practice of head hunting has almost ceased. That genial diversion had depopulated whole districts up to the advent of the Borneo inhabitant was more closely arrived at by the Friday Morning Club, than its members had probably ever dreamed of. ROBBED BY A BLONDE.

Expert Pickpocket Who Has Been Operating Here Believed to be a Woman.

For the past several weeks hardly a day has passed but some person has appeared at the Police Station and reported that he has been made the victim of an expert pickpocket. No less than a score of such cases have been reported, and invariably the robberies were committed in street crowds, many of them at places where fakirs had atof them at places where fakirs had attracted gatherings by their spieling. Until yesterday the police had not the slightest clew to the identity of the hief who was making from $5 to $20 to the members of the club to hold uphis hands and the hands of Judge Wilbur in saving the children so that there may be no criminals in Los Angeles to reclaim. When the was making the was making from $5 to $20 their first lead. The pickspocket who has been committing all of these thefts is a woman. Hal Sparks, whose home is at No. 226 Fremont avenue, was standing near the corner of Fourth and Main streets yesterday afternoon, left felt some person jostle him, and, turning, saw a well-dressed and handsome blonde woman, who smilingly begged his pardon and said she was sorry. He was rather pleased than offended at being jostled by such a handsome creature. of them at places where fakirs had at-rather pleased than offended at being jostled by such a handsome creature, and was tickling himself that he had had an opportunity to speak to her. Then he felt for his watch, but it was missing. Of course the woman got it; but as a result of this robbery the police have secured a good description of the woman, as Sparks took a good look at her. His watch was worth nearly $100.

In this issue will be begun an original historical account of the LEWIS AND CLARK EXPLORING EXPEDITION, written by Miss Katherine Chandler of San Francisco. Miss Chandler spent much time and labor in searching historical records for this work, going to Philadelphia and otner points in the East for information. The sketch is graphically written, and will constitute not only a valuable historic record, but will be most delightful reading.

A company has been formed in Sa Francisco and agents are now attempting to float stock on the lo-cal market on a so-called radium mine. So says State Mineral Lewis E. Aubury, who is now in Los Angeles. Other promoters who have no interest whatever in the property, are endeavoring to form a company to obtain possession of the "mine" or adfacent territory.

Jacent territory.

Mr. Aubury states that some time ago, samples of ore from a claim in Mariposa county were brought to the State Mining Bureau for determination, and as the owner seemed to be of the opinion that the rock contained certain mysterious properties, Mr. Aubury instructed Mr. Preston, in charge of the laboratory and department for mineral determination, to make a qualitative analysis of the sample. He did so and found that the ore condid so and found that the ore con-tained some gold, silver, copper, zinc and several minor metals. The ore when scratched with a knife, hard wood or other hard substance, emitted a spark similar to that of flint when struck with steel. A very close examination of the rock, however, failed to disclose the presence of radium. It is something of a mineral curiosity and to the uninitiated, it would appear as a wonderful occur.

The owner and others interested have sent specimens of the ore all over the United States and Europe, as they were at first convinced that California metallurgists were not able to cope with what they thought was a deep Lud intricate mineralogical problem; but so far, they have not been able to obtain different results from reliable parties.

An enterprising "chemist" of San Prancisco claims to have extracted large quantities of radium from the ore, says Mr. Aubury, notwithstanding the fact that there are no facilities in the State for the reduction of radium. Mr. Aubury sent a representative to interview the "chemist," but he found the laboratory closed with a sign on the door to the effect that as some very intricate experiments were bein, carried on in extracting radium, the laboratory would be closed for a few days. If the old saying that misery loves company be true, then a lot of An-geleños who have been making them-selves unhappy over the loss of transfer privileges can turn their eyes to the fair neighboring city of South Pasa-dena and there find a grain of com-had fallen in Redlands. While the wires are down in the mountains, it is known that 1.72 inches of snow and rain fell at Oakglenn. At Live Oak there was a little more rain, and there is five inches of snow at Fredalba Park, and ten inches at Hunsaker's Falls. Snow is tying two feet deep in Bear Valley. Riverside got .68 of an inch to yesterday morning. Rain was falling there steadily last evening.

The fall at Santa Ana to yesterday morning was .60 of an inch. Toward the foothills it was heavier. The moisture is reported sufficient to start barley on several hundred acres that have been seeded. In Anaheim from midnight to daybreak the fall was .71 of an inch. In Fullerton to last evening the fall was one inch.

There was a moderate but steady fall in San Luis Obispo county during Thursday night and yesterday. The fall in Kern county was lighter. Bakersfield reported .15 of an inch, and there was a lesser fall at Stockdale and Paso. A heavy snowstorm is going on in the mountains of Kern county.

At Ventura an inch fell Thursday night, and about the same amount is registered throughout that county. The rain was of the warm spring kind, and fell so gently that not a drop was wasted. fort.

South Pasadenans, too, are in the midst of a transfer proposition squabble. It has reached the point where the City Board of Trustees has taken action in a series of resolutions to be presented to the Pacific Electric Company, and which the South Pasadenans hope will bring them relief.

At its last meeting the Board of Trustees unanimously adopted a resolution presented by Trustee Walker Jones, which set forth that the railway company was violating the terms of its franchises by refusing to stop its cars at certain cross streets; and that it failed to give transfers from the Short Line to the old line and to the Mission-street "cut-off," despite the fact that the franchise makes provisions for those transfers, and the stopping of cars at every street where passengers desire it.

In the resolutions the board also takes occasion to remind the street railway company that one of its promises at the time of securing the franchise was that the ear service on the old line would be maintained as good as that on the Short Line, and that this has not been done; that there are other provisions which the company has ignored, and that the South Pagadena City Attorney is instructed to present these resolutions to the management of the Pacific Electric Company, and ascertain if it be the intention of the company to comply with the provisions of the franchise.

The Board of Trustees tempers its resolutions with a few hencyd words, as follows: "While the City Trustees fully appreciate the progressive spirit of H. E. Huntington and his associates in giving the city better transportation facilities, and also of his worthy motives in improving and beautifying a portion of our municipality, we feel it our duty to insist that the terms of the railway franchises and other agreements should be complied with in several important details which have been overlooked by the company. We realize that it takes time to put a great effect of the railway franchises and other agreements into systematic working order; but certainly the time has now arrived when the citizens of South Pasadena are entitled to the full benefit of the provisions of the franchises." Britt announced positively that he would not take on Corbett before the Hayes Valley Club, if Corbett insisted on fighting Sullivan before that organization in the middle of this month. Then the double dealings of all parties to the contract became apparent. Manager Levy of the Yosemite Club declared he had been bunceed out of $100 forfeit, for the simple reason that the men had not signed articles, and that the posting of the money was a mere bluff. Eddle Graney looked serious, and said he had no power in the matter, but would be compelled to return the men's $500, deposited with him to bind their appearance when it is demanded.

The contest between Al Neill and "Dixle Kid" promises to be the best bout that has been arranged to take place in Oakland in some time. The two crack welterweights are scheduled to bog fifteen rounds before the Sequois Club next Tuesday night, and the winner is to take 75 per cent. of the fighter's share of the gate money. Both have agreed to weigh in at 152 pounds at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, a weight which is easy for both men. "Spider" Kelly has signed Jim Scanlan to meet Billy Bates in a bout of ten rounds at Los Angeles, in the latter part of this month. Southern sports have arranged for a reopening in the citrus belt, and for a week past have had an agent moving about in boxing circles in this city. In securing Scanlan and Bates, he gets a high-class match. In his late bout with Joe Millet before the Colma Club, Scanlan showed high quality as a boxer. Bates is also

NO U.S.C. MEET TODAY.

The local field day of U.S.C., which was to have been held this afternoon on the college campus, has been postponed until next week, owing to the muddy condition of the grounds. It is now the intention to have the try-out on Wednesday, but it will come on Monday if the neld is dry enough. The poung at the tryoung and the

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Danish castle of Kronberg, famous as the Elsinore of Shakespeare's "Hamlet," is threatened, according to an American dispatch from Berlin, by destruction by the undermining tides of the Kattagat. MUD LARKS PLY IN.

Rain has given to the race track vocabulary the peculiar term "mud lark," meaning a horse that apparently likes to run in the mud. The sports say of such a beast that "he just eats mud" and this was illustrated very nicely yesterday by the victories of Double O at 20 to 1, Red Damsel at 7 to 1 and Jim Hale at even money. They just sloshed through the nasty, going and while they really did not "eat mud" they did it figuratively by skating through it and taking the money. Double O did do something for Celebration here several weeks ago by going to the front, but never even scared anyone until his race was almost finished yeaterday, and then he came on and landed first, with top weight on. It was in (5929) Cardwellton (5929) Cardwell (5929) Cardwell

Red Damsel also shone brightly as something of a mudder in the fifth event, which she apparently won easily under Walsh's good riding. Buccleuth was the hot favorite and The Moor was well liked by some, but Walsh sent Red Damsel out in the lead at once and was never headed. From fifth place Canejo moved gradually up and was second at the last turn, and Damsel had to be shaken up to beat out this good one. Buccleuth was away last and was never better than seventh.

The features of the mudders' carditoday at Ascot Park is the Ascot Oaks for three-year-old fillies. Top weight is given to Cap and Gown, which was shipped here from San Francisco for the race. The races and entries are as follows:

Who Doubt Its Truth.

If the story which R. G. Reese and F.

A. Duggan told to the police at 1 o'clock this morning be true, they were the victims of one of the most remarkable cases of highway robbery which has ever occurred in this city; but there are features about it which lead to a doubt that any such robbery was committed. In telling their story they were not excited in the least, told their experience several times and seemed to regard the matter more as a joke than as a serious crime. This is the tale they told:

as a serious crime. This is the tale they told:

They had spent the evening at the home of Mr. Hazsard. No. 1307 South Alvarado street. About 11 o'clock, on the way home, near the corner of Seventh and Burlington, they noticed a man approaching from across the street, and one remarked to the other that the man looked like a highwayman. When the man got close to them he suddenly drew a large revolver and covered them. He pressed his gun against the body of Reese, and fold Duggan if he moved or made an outcry. Reese would be killed. Then he commanded the two young men to give him what money they had, and Reese gave him about 25 and Duggan 25.6. The robber did not attempt to take their watches or other valuables, and by way of explanation stated that he was obliged to commit the robbery because of the "hard times." The highwayman then walked west along Seventh street, and his alleged victims started east.

Let us take another topic, that of Tillers of the Goil. Under this we find the following subdivisions: Difficulty of generalization, the position of the surf. the villain and the freeman, the lord's estate worked like a State, the open-field farming, the manor court, the Peterborough survey, the system of weekly 'farms,' the St. Paul's Farm buildings, the knights and the defense of the soil. A student will from these headings at once grasp the nature of 'Medieval England' and the value that Miss Bateson's work may be to him. The author has made three large divisions of her history. The first of these is entitled "Norman Feudalism," and is concerned with the period 1068-1154; the second is headed "The Lawyer's Feudalism," and covers the period 1154 to 1250, and the third period bears the title "Decadent Feudalism," and is concerned with the years beginning 1250 and ending 1350. The work is well furnished with illustrations and has a chronological table in addition to an index.

one way or another one constantly finds need of knowing the world and its people.

Under this title, "The World and Its People," the publishers of the present volume, "The Story of the Philippines," by Adeline Knapp, are offering a series of readers intended particularly to supplement the geography, and, in general, to contribute to the broadest education of young people. Our near neighbors, our antipodes, and the people that live between these extremes, are studied in turn, so that the series as a whole gives a comprehensive view of the world in its geographical aspect. The commercial and industrial side of each country—that element which constitutes so large a part of the live interest and practical value of geographical study—has been given deserved attention throughout the series.

Among the volumes already published the following have been read by us, and they are entitled to our approval, both from our pedagogical position and from our viewpoint as a literary critic.

ESSAYS.

RINSHIP OF NATURE By Bliss Carmen. L. C. Page & Co., Boston. (For sale by Fowler Bros., Los Angeles.)

This book contains some of the best of Mr. Carmen's work essays—work the chief and most evident characteristic of which is the polish of the literary scholar, the man of books; yet which, beneath its quiet elegance of dress, carries red blood. There is something in Mr. Carman's independence in individuality that reminds the reader of Emerson; it is not the rugged and aggressive independence of Emerson, not the independence of the man of action, but that of the thinker; but it is none the less quietly effective; read, for instance, the two ensays. "The Luxury of Being Poor" and "Of Serenity." The essays are perhaps hardly such as will set a man's feet in a new path of action; but they are such as, if he already possess an expressives of his own, will aid to confirm him in it. They are written precaminently for the thinker and will appeal to him; but whether, if a man were not a thinker in the first place, they would in any manner suffice to teach him the enjoyments of books.

POETRY.

LAFAYETTE ODE AND LATER LYRICS.
By Frank Putnam. The National Magazine
Press, Boston. (Price $1.)

Putnam in this little book. He says:
"Six times I have printed small verse collections privately. All these earlier collections have long since passed they the dusk. A publisher thought out a collection in a book of star-dard size—an edition of 1000 copies. I believe he sold eighty or move of them, and turned the rest into pulp: It was the greatest kindness we could do me. These laint passes. I may or may not be worth saving. In order to determine the point—here they are. I have printed an edition of 180 copies—50 for the press, 100 for sale, should anyone be inclined to buy.

So extreme and unusual a modesty disarms the critic at once, and he would like to say nothing but good of the work thus introduced. Fifty copies for the press and only twice that number to supply a possible public demand!

Certainly, although there may be two opinions regarding the literary value of the collection as a whole, there are several of the poems well worth preserving. The "Ode to Lafayette," read on the occasion of the unveiling of the Lafayette Monument in Paris, July 4.

ter of natural pride on the part of southerners. Prof. Painter's small compendium is arranged for class use, with appended notes on the poems reproduced, but will also be found of very general interest in its short but excellent biographies. After a brief review of the minor poets of the South, Prof. Painter gives us a concise, critical study of the life and work of Poe, Paul Hamilton Hayne, Henry Timrod, Sidney Lanier and Father Ryan. The biographies occupy about half of the book, the remainder is devoted to selections from the poems of the different authors.

TEXT-BOOKS.

The American Book Company, New York (Price 50 cents.)

Two new and important publications of the American Book Company are the work of California instructors. These are classroom eddons of de la Motte Fouque's "Undine" and Victor von Scheffel's "Trompeter von Saekkingen." Each volume is provided with footnotes in place of appended notes—scant notes in the case of the "Undine," more elaborate ones in that of the "Trompeter," as necessitated by the historic and other references so frequent in this last named work. The notes are, in both cases, those of men who are at home in German history and literature, as well as in all that pertains to the national life—not simply students of it. A vocabulary follows the text and a short biography of the author precedes it. These two poems—in verse and in prose—are among the most beautiful products of German remantic writers and eminently fitted by their character for school use. It is a somewhat noteworthy coincidence that the two should have been edited simultaneously by Californians.

P. A. Rot and William B. Guitteau. Central. High School. Toledo. (Frice Scenas.)

The same firm of publishers prints the French classic "Le Bourgeois Gentilhomame," edited and annotated according to the same plan as that described above, by two Toledo teachers. The work in all these volumes appears, to ordinary examination, exceedingly well done; it should, however, be noted that the editions are not prepared with a view to teachers insufficiently versed in their branches and in need of much assistance from editors. All the books presuppose skilled specialists at the head of the language departments.

The Beginner's French Book is arranged with intent to train ear, eye and tongue simultaneously; combining the progressive learning of rules and English-French and French-English translations on paper with daily lessons in conversation and the acquirement of a vocabulary and a practical acquaintance with French idlom. The aim of the book, the introduction of newer method without the abandonment of that which has been found indispensable in the old, is good, and appears to be well carried out.

history and political selence. University of Rochester. The American Book Company. New York. Price $1.)

Nothing could better illustrate the new system of thought in history than Prof. Morey's latest volume. It is but comparatively few years since history, at least as studied from text-books, was little more than a list of dates and names, the story of potentates and their wars, a task—and a heavy one—for the memory chiefly. The theory of a social evolution and newly acquired knowledge in the provinces of ethnology, sociology and allied branches have made of it a fascinating problem, in the solution of which reason plays the foremost role and furnishes memory with a thread whereon to string its facts; while no longer kings and captains, but those titanic underlying forces that make for the growth of civilization, appear as the chief factors of the problem. In a line with these newer ideas, which show the histories of particular peoples to be but parts of a great whole and dependent on many other parts, Prof. Morey's history is properly a general review of the early history of the Orient, especially of Mediterranean history, in which the part played by Greece is shown in more expanded form. The first chapter treats of prehistoric man and the beginnings of history, the last of the infience of Greek culture upon civilization as a whole. Throughout the book the evolution of Greek art, Greek philosophy and Greek pelitical institutions is kept in the foreground as the feature of chief importance. Such a book as this is as fas-cinating to the thoughtful man or woman as a romance, and ought to be recommended to the general public as well as to students; its value for gen-eral culture and enlightenment can hardly be overestimated. The typog-raphy and illustrations of the book are excellent. It is intended to meet the requirements for admission to the lead-ing colleges, and those of the course prescribed by the New York State Regents. With the author's "Outlines of Roman History" it furnishes a com-plete review of ancient history.

Metric System Bill.

THE METRIC FALLACT. By Prederick A. Halsey, Associate Editor of the American Machinist, and The Metric Failure & Samuel & Dale. D. Van Nostrand Company. New York. (Price, 31.60.)

This is a book of argument against the introduction of the metric system into the United States. The authors have collected a vast number of statistics from all the countries in which the metric system has been adopted, showing the obstinate persistence of old units of weight and measure in these countries and a resulting awkward confusion in all departments of trade and manufacture. The general argument is: That units of measure long taught the people and ingrained in popular habits of thought and trade cannot be abolished by law, and that the attempt at such abolition can thus result only in confusion; that the nomenclature of the new weights and measures is difficult to memories, while the English nomenclature consists of short, expressive words, easily distinguished in recollection; that English weights and measures have proved their superiority in use. The facts and figures collected from the various industries are too many for specific examination in a review, but the authors have made manufacturers and others who are interested in this question will find the book valuable in its statistics and suggestive in its argument.

Hundreds of Yards of Dress Goods Damaged by Water

During Thursday night's storm a clogged roof-gutter emptied its entire contents through a defective skylight that overhangs our Woolen Dress Goods Department, literally soaking hundreds of yards of our most expensive dress materials, entailing a loss that is not easily calculated. We have made a settlement with our landlord whereby he assumes his share of the loss, we take ours as gracefully as we can and the public reaps the benefit.

Today We Place the Whole Lot on Sale

...At 40c on the Dollar...

Fortunately the goods most effected are in the darker shades, colors that when once dried out will never tell the tale of this unfortunate occurrence. Some are wet through and through, others only on one end, others in spots that go clear through or only part way. However, they are in a condition that precludes the possibility of us placing them again on the shelves, and as we have no means at hand of drying them we have decided to take the loss here and now.

There are Zibelines, Tweeds, Camelshairs, English Suitings, Tailor Cloths, Cheviots, Serges, Fancy Weaves and Mixtures of all kinds, mostly in the heavier grade of goods suitable for tailor gowns, skirts, coats, etc. Nearly every color and combination of colors you could ask for; every weight. Goods that ranged in price from a dollar to two dollars a yard.

Seventeen Women Arrested on Vagrancy Charge.

out the names of Camille, Gabrielle, Lisette, Jeanne, Heloise, etc., an order came from Justice Austin to hurry the prisoners into court instead of locking them up in the jail, as he desired to give them an opportunity to furnish bail before the adjournment of court for the day.

The bail proposition was in the nature of a grim joke on the part of His Honor, but the prisoners and those expected to furnish the bail, didn't find it out until about a quarter of an hour later. It has been customary to fix the ball of directly women charged with later. It has been customary to fix the bail of dissolute women charged with vagrancy at $25 to $50, but Justice Austin was playing nothing but the limit yesterday, and he fairly raised the male creatures who own the prostitutes and put up the money to get them out of their troubles, out of their boots by requiring a bond of $500 or the equivalent in cash, in each case.

Capt. Auble, assisted by Sergt. Harris, and Officers Craig, England, Ross, Hosick, Jarvis, Leon, Glenn and Alexander, descended upon the district, in accordance with a programme carefully mapped out, on advice of City Attorney Mathews and arrested all the women against whom evidence of prostitution had been secured.

Officers England and Ross, two new-ly-appointed policemen, had been at work in the crib district for two weeks in citizens' clothes, collecting evidence.

in citizens' clothes, collecting evidence. They had sworn out warrants for the arrest of fifteen women upon whom they had kept tab and were reasonably sure of being able to convict. Strategy had to be used in order to get a chance to serve the warrants, and the scheme was successful, a total of seventeen prisoners being taken, two more than warrants had been secured for.

Thirteen of the unlucky courtesan

Thirteen of the unlucky courtesans were loaded into the patrol wagon, all the wagon would hold—think of it, ye superstitious, thirteen and the day was Friday—and carted off to the Police Station. The remaining four were escorted to the station afoot and on cars. A crowd of saloon bums and macquereaux followed the procession, but were shut out of the station. The pity of it is they were not locked up.

If it is desired to ascertain whether a Pacific Electric Railway Company in the right to operate cars at all on ast Ninth street under its railroad sarter, the City Attorney advises a Council that quo warranto proceedings should be begun in the name of a people of the State of California. No vote on a recommendation to the numell was taken by the Board of abite Werks. At the executive series which followed the open meeting the board it was mutually agreed at the City Attorney should be emmerced to assist in the damage suits. Begarding the proposed quo warranto proceedings to compel the Pacific actric Railway Company to abandon nits street altogether, the members of a beard were not of one mind. However, it eseemed likely last night that board will report in favor of intusting such proceedings.

Since the filing of such communicaing, several actions for damages have sayn instituted in the Superfor Court of parties who have been refused such manafers, and in these actions the question is presented and will be deided whether the Pacific Electric Railray Company is obliged to issue and he Council so direct, to lend such asistance in these cases as may be deified by the attorneys conducting them.

"As to the point that the Pacific Elecric Railway Company is not authormal by its charter of incorporation to mercies a street-railway franchise, I log to advise you that in my opinion, he Ninth-street franchise only authorman the operation of a street-railway

PRO AND CON.

T. J. Hampton began the discussion of the opinion. On behalf of the East Ninth-street residents he asked that the Council take such action as would compel the issuance of transfers immediately. He said transfers were what the people wanted and that quo warranto proceedings regarding the use of Ninth street could wait.

In reply to a question from Nofziger, Attorney Emmett H. Wilson said that the citizens who had begun the damage suits against the company desired the assistance of the City Attorney in placing before the court the transfer obligations of the Pacific Efectric Railway Company.

In reply to a question from Nofalger, Attorney Emmett H. Wilson said that the citizens who had begun the damage suits against the company desired the assistance of the City Attorney in piacing before the court the transfer obligations of the Pacific Electric Railway Company.

R. NEWBERRY, the Spring-street grocer, created a mild sensation in Justice Young's court yesterday. He roasted a criminal lawyer and made it apparent to the court why it is that business men do not like to sit on little jury cases.

Newberry was but one of a number of well-known men of standing who were summoned on this jury to try the case of a countryman, W. C. Tucker, who was charged with selling liquor without a Heense at Lamanda Park. Among the veniremen were Milo M. Potter, proprietor of the Van Nuys; O. T. Johnson, capitalist; J. R. Newberry George Schmidt, a stationer well known here: Thiele, the wall paper man; Luckenbach, the jeweler, and others.

Notwithstanding the great rese of private business, Mr. Newberry made no objection to serving. He stated to the court that he considered it part of his duty as a citizen.

As the case wore on, however, and the usual tricks for delay began to his wath began to rise, The case was one which properly should have been disposed of from start to finish in about thirty minutes.

When most of the morning had gone. Newberry got up and demanded his reposed for the court on the ground that he had, within six months, served the two two property should have been disposed of from start to finish in about thirty minutes.

"I was perfectly willing to serve in the court on the ground that he had, within six months, served that he had, within six months, served the two property should have been disposed of from start to finish in about thirty minutes.

"I was perfectly willing to serve in the considered my duty had these lawyers not begun their distance was a legal ground of exemption.

The court had no choice of course vice was a legal ground of exemption.

The lawyers would not hove the verification of the control of the other well-known men who abroad, based on false premises, that had awakened considerable sentiment against the company. The stockholders in the Los Angeles Railway Company and the Pacific Electric Railway. Company, he declared, are not identical and H. E. Huntington does not own a controlling interest in the Pacific Electric Railway.

Attorney Wilson replied that while stockholders in the Los Angeles Railway Company might not control the Pacific Electric Railway Company, that the reverse was the case, and Pacific Electric Railway stockholders controlled the local system.

"When these companies wish to get together for the exchange of franchises or any little thing like that, it is accomplished very easily," said Wilson. "When they do not want to chises or any little thing like that, it is accomplished very easily," said Wilson. "When they do not want to agree the thing is impossible."

McAleer said there was only one thing to do, and that was to take hold of the railway situation with a firm hand and compel the universal exchange of transfers.

Davenport was not inclined to act hastily in a matter of so much importance, and he moved that the transfer question be taken under advisement by the board. This motion prevailed and the Councilmen went into executive conference.

Delay in Bond Transfer.

There has been considerable delay in the final transfer of the sewer bonds to the syndicate of local banks that purchased the securities, but it is expected that the exchange of the bonds for money will be made today. All the trouble has been caused by the professional reluctance of the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, which is on City Treasurer Workman's bond, to accept indemnity bonds from other surety companies bonding the individual banks. H. A. Wagner, Pacific Coast representative of the Fidelity company, is in the city and an attempt was made yesterday to have all the banks agree to a trusteeshim whereby all the bonds can be turned over to some person, selected, and placed in a safe deposit box. Delay in Bond Transfer.

ATTORNEY'S OPINION.

In the matter of the communication of the council and others to the Council calling attention to the City Council acted very unwisely and in an unbusinessilic manner in voting to pay 12500 for Sycamore Grove on such an intangible basis as an interest railway on East Ninth street; at said company is chartered as a licoal copperation, and that it refuses is suce or receive transfers to or from my and taking the City Council to the park and the Los Angeles Railway Company to issue and receive such inspense of the Los Angeles Railway Company to issue and receive such inspense of the park, but he says manner of the Los Angeles Railway company to issue and receive such inspense of the park, but he says manner of the Los Angeles Railway company to issue and receive such inspense of the park, but he says manner of the Council should secure a written opinion in which the amount of land to be sold for the $22.500 is accurately described and set forth. DALLERINO MUST GO TO JAIL.

JUSTICE AUSTIN GIVES CRIB KING STIFF DOSE.

Old Bartole and Joe Wiet Sentenced to Thirty Days' Imprison-ment and to Pay Fine of Five Hun-dred Dollars—An Appeal Taken.

Thirty days in jail and $500 fine ingly rented to a dissolute woman purposes of prostitution.

If the fine, or any part of it, is not paid at the expiration of the thirty days' jail sentence, the culprit shall be imprisoned one day for each dollar unpaid, for a term not exceeding 150 n days in addition to the thirty days which he must serve in any event, thus making a total jail sentence of thus making a total jail sentence of days in addition to the thirty days which he must serve in any event, that he was not smoking in the court-room. "They are usually pretty good when they get to court."

When she had told the sad, sad story, Mr. Haroldson bounced up in the courtroom and asked freezingly, "Could I ask the lady a few questions?"

Lucle Corney flew to her reacue. "No," he said, "I object. I wouldn't care if she answered any questions he had to ask, but I know this will only lead to something unpleasant."

Judge Wilbur said that he was convinced the boy was beyond coatrol and should go to Whittier.

Mrs. Haroldson gave His Honor one of these ingenue baby blue eyes stares, and said, cuttingly, "What, without hearing what he boy has to say?"

His Honor had no such intention, however, and sent the boy back to the detention home for a week.

After adjournment of court, the three talked it over with some heat. The boy "called down" his fond paps and Mr. and Mrs. Haroldson followed the evidently wanted to look at least partly respectable when he sinced to give them a punishment as beditted their crime, but not before TARDY CULPRITS.

Neither of the defendants was in court at 3:30 ofdook he hour set for sentence. Their attorneys, Edward L. Hutchison and Horace Beil, were punctual to the minute, but Woot did not show up until fifteen and Ballerino twenty-three minutes later. The "crib king," whose cheap and slovenly garb would never betray him as a man of wealth, had actually stopped on the way to court to have his shoes shined. He evidently wanted to look at least partly respectable when he stood up to receive his sentence.

Justice Austin waited impatiently for the tardy culprits to appear and as soon as he had them before him he proceeded to give them a punishment as beditted their crime, but not before he had listened to and overruled the motions of the defendants' counse; for postponement of the sentence and a new trial.

NO POSTPONEMENT.

(a) The verdict is contrary to law and against the evidence.
(7.) Newly-discovered evidence material to the defense.
Counsel for the defendants wanted time to file affidavits in support of the motion for a new trial, but the request was denied and the motion overruled.

The defendants were then ordered to stand up and sentence was pronounced as stated above.

The jail sentence made the culprits look pale, as the courts, heretofore, have been prone, in such cases, to punish only with fines with the allowative of spins to jail if the fines.

punish only with fines with the al-ternative of going to jail if the fines were not paid. There is no getting away from this jail sentence unless the appeal from the judgment is sus-tained by the Superior Court, and it is hardly thought that the appeal will stand.

Notice of appeal was given as soon as sentence was pronounced, and the defendants were required to give bond in the sum of $1500 each pending set-tlement of the question on appeal.

Rose Held for Forgery.

Charles E. Ross was held by Justice Chambers yesterday to answer a charge of forgery. The evidence showed that Ross signed the name of William H. Griffith to a check for $11.25 and induced B. Morris to cash it for that amount. In default of $1000 hell, Ross was committed to the custody of the Sheriff while awaiting trial in the Superior Court.

GETS SALVER INTO TROUBLE.

Frank Miller, an employe of the Woodill & Huise Electric Company, was held to answer for an attempt to commit grand larceny, by Justice Austin, yesterday, Miller does not look nor act like a criminal, but seems rather to be the victim of most remarkrather to be the victim of most remarkable circumstances. Miller's conduct with regard to a bicycle he was accused of stealing, was, to say the least, indiscreet and unfortunate.

On the night of December M there was a fire on Fifth street, between Spring and Broadway. Miller, who was working that night, saw the blase and helped the police and firemen to salve goods in adjoining buildings which were threatened by the fire. Among the places threatened was a bicycle shop, and Miller helped to remove a stock of wheels to another building. While trying to prevent another man from stealing one of the bicycles, the wouldbe thief struck Miller a victous blow with his fist, knocking him down and blacking one of his gyes.

The care had stopped running for the night and Miller, suffering pain and drenched with water while helping the firemen, asked a policeman who was present whether he thought it would be all right if he took one of the rescued bicycles to ride home on. The West of Santa Ana will rule on the demurrer of Craven to the indictment which charges him with embezzlement.

In the Shaver case the matters alleged were outlawed by reason of having been committed more than a year previously, and for this reason it was decided in Shaver's favor. The indictment against Craven was drawn on substantially the same lines as the accusation against Shaver. The question of the statute of limitations will not come up in this case, as the offense charged is recent.

Last evening C. E. Best, Chester Whitelaw, Miss Richmond, a teacher in Whitelaw, Miss Richmond, a teacher in the public schools, and Miss Edna Best were going along near the Lincoln School grounds on their way to prayer meeting, when a highwayman stepped from behind a shade tree, and, pointing a revolver at them, demanded their money. Miss Richmond and Mr. Whitelaw were ahead, and while the robber was going through Whitelaw's pockets Best and his daughter beat a hasty retreat. The hold-up was in a thickly-settled part of the city. The fellow did not bother Miss Richmond, nor did he seem to notice Whitelaw's watch, but taking the latter's purse, which contained only 30 cents, he rushed away.

SNAG FOR HARPERS.

The Harper Brothers Publishing Company of New York has struck a snag in Ventura county. Yesterday the Board of Supervisors rescinded a contract which it had made with the Harpers to pay that firm 4400 for publishing a page of Ventura county advertising in Harper's weekly. The board further ordered the County Treasurer not to pay the warrant for that amount drawn in favor of the eastern publishers in case it should be presented. The board entered into the contract with understanding that the edition containing the matter would appear in December. Then it was put over to January and later until March. The board concluded this was too long to wait. INTEGAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES!

VENTURA, Feb. 5.—Work on the installation of the new natural gas plant, in this city is progressing. A large gang is employed on Ventura avenue laying a three-inch main. The pipes are laid from the wells two miles north of town to the Ruis place, a distance of 5000 feet, or about half way to the city. Another carload of pipe is on the way. Work on the deep well has been suspended at 750 feet. Several good strata of gas were tapped and the yield from this hole will be about 10.000 feet. This is half the output developed in four or five shallow wells previously put down, and raless the gas output to about 10.000 feet every twenty-four hours.

The promoters exploiting the field will not sink more deep wells, but will confine all development to shallow ones. The prospect is the gas plant will soon be established.

GAS GOES OFF.

J. L. Smith of Piru was severely burned about the face while attempting to solder a gasoline can. Smith supposed the can was empty and it was, barring a very small part of gasoline, but he didn't reckon on the gas in the can, and when his soldering ron got matters sufficiently warm there was a sudden stoppage of all proceedings and a vanishing can. The flame was huge and intense while it lasted, but fortunately it missed Smith's eyes.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 5 .- With the conviction that the body discovered in the con-suculptus grove near Buena Park is that of a workingman and not of a tramp, Coroner Smith has started an investigation to determine the identity of the half-decayed remains. As nearly as can be ascertained the man was between 45 and 50 years of age, was five feet five inches in height, and weighed about 150 pounds. His hair was brown, streaked with gray, and his beard of a dark reddish tinge. The body was clothed in almost new, heavy underwear, new overalls, soft gray shirt and light blue jumper, and had on heavy, hob-nailed boots. In the pockets of the overalls were a 10-cent piece and a blank check, bearing the date line of "Calloo, Cal." and stamped with the name J. R. Lane. BITTEN BY A DOG.

John Allen, a tinner employed at the Santa Fé shops, is in a critical condition from the effects of being bitten by a large buildog which attacked him recently. Allen was returning to his home when waylaid by the dog which closed its jaws on the calf of his leg, badly lacerating that member. The leg has swollen to more than double its natural size, and the indications are that Allen is threatened with blood poisoning, with a possibility that hydraphobla may result. The dog has attacked several persons within the past few months, but the owners refuse to have it killed.

Yesterday the club furniture was moved, but hardly had the first load been taken out when had the first load been taken out when Mrs. Annie Pierce appeared on the scene, accompanied by her friend Miss Wheelan, and took possession, announcing that she would stay. Mrs. Pierce established herself in one of the rooms and remained there all the aftrooms and remained there all the afternoon in spite of the remonstrance of several of the club directors, who informed her that as the club lease was not up until the 5th inst. she had absolutely no right to be there. She replied that the club was moving out and she thought it best to be on the spot as soon as the building was vacated. Finally she consented to leave on the advice of her attorney, W. S. Day.

The club has always paid its rent to Mrs. Mary W. Pierce, through her agent, but it is understood that Mrs. Annie Pierce will make a strong fight for the property. Several officers and some of the club employes are now guarding the building against invasion.

The Board of Supervisors decided a

The Board of Supervisors decided a very important case which has been before it some time, relating to the before it some time, relating to the eradication of the Texas fever among the cattle of the county. The board has been urged to provide public dips in order that small owners might be able to dip their stock without much expense, but the Supervisors decided that they could not take this action because they have no authority to appropriate the public funds for such a purpose, and because the use of public dips would necessitate the violation of the State and county laws against driving infected cattle over the public highways. The only solution of the problem seems to be the erection of dipping plants by every owner.

Notwithstanding the fact that the ghlanders at the extreme east side of the city, and the valley residents at the northwest corner of this municipality have the same desire burning in their hearts to become a part of the city of Los Angeles, there appears to be no prospect of the two commu nities working together on the plans for annexation.

In fact there is a decided coolnes between the two sets of workers. The Occidental Heights people held an informal conference yesterday afternoon and they decided that they would prob-ably be able to close their petition work by next Tuesday. They are jub-llant over their prospects and declare liant over their prospects and declare that they want to have their proposition stand alone.

The highlanders fear that any sort of a combination with the proposition to take in the Cahuenga Valley would be fatal to their own enterprise, and want to go it entirely alone.

want to go it entirely alone. Their claim is that the territory asking for admission at the east side of the city is really only three miles from the business center of Los Angeles; that it has a fine school already provided; and is well settled, with provisions made for many other resi-dences if the annexation proposition carries.

They contend that as the city has taken in territory that lays much far-ther away than these highlands, they are entitled to equal consideration. The committee of workers has call-

A Hidden Torturer Death Preferable to the Agony

Borne by Mr. Coyle.

Three Years of Excruciating Neuralgia Terminated by Six Boxes of
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The pity of the modern world has always been stirred by tales of the sufferings of the wretched victims in the torture chambers once connected with courts of justice. The very sight of a gruesome collection of pincers, tongs, thumbscrews and racks, used ages ago, awes curious spectators and makes them tremble with living horror. While such cruelties survive now only among savage races, men still suffer from agonies of disease so intense that they can find no terms still suffer from agonies of disease so intense that they can find no terms fit to describe them say words like "torture" and "rack." which call up vividly the barbarities of the outgrown past. The unhappy victims sometimes, as in the case which follows, faint with the exhaustion of intense pain, and even long for death to hasten and end sufferings which they have a needed so long in vain to men have appealed so long in vain to men to relieve. All help that comes from drugs that deaden pain for a brief sea-son is only mockery, for the short respites are always followed by more

The story of James B. Coyle, a mill operative, residing at No. 9 Pond street, Amesbury, Mass., is a striking recent case in illustration. "During the past three years," said Mr. Coyle to a reporter, "I was troubled with neuralgia in the head. At times the pains were almost unbearable and neuralgia in the head. At times the pains were almost unbearable and my sufferings were such that death would have been welcome as a relief. The pains began right over my eyes and shot upward through my head. They were so excruciating that they would almost make me faint dead away from exhaustion.

"I consulted several physicians but, while they all diagnosed my case as neuralgia and prescribed for that, they gave me only temporary relief. Then I took a number of advertised neuralgia took a number of advertised neuralgis took a number of advertised neuralgia cures with no better result. About four months ago a friend told me about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and I decided to try a box, although then I had but little faith in them, bethen I had but little faith in them, because I had taken so many remedies without benefit. After I had used one box I noticed that the pains were less frequent and intense than before. So I took a second box with additional improvement. After I had taken six boxes my neuralgia was entirely cured, and for two months I have been free from pain. I have sound restful sleep at night and no feeling of langor during the day. I bless the day when I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

LORDSBURG.

TO HOLD BOND ELECTION.

LORDSBURG, Feb. 5.—The trustees of the Bonita Union High School, which includes San Dimas, La Verne and Lordsburg, have called an election for March 5 for the people to decide whether $50,000 bonds shall be issued. for the purchase of a tract of land and the erection of a High School building for these three prosperous communities. The trustees have secured an option on twelve acres of land in La Verne, situated on Bonita avenue, south of the residence of L. C. Meredith. The location is central and approved by all the taxpayers, the only difference of opinion being as to the cost of the proposed structure, the La Verne school district being already bonded for $12,000, for a new schoolhouse, the mismanagement in the erection of which, was so severely criticised throughout the district.

DRETTY LOVE SCENE SPOILED.

TELESCOPE AND TITTERING AT SUPREME MOMENT.

But High School Winter Class Play is a Success, in Spite of Diverting Surprises—"The Spy" Creditably

The wicked senior B with the pea captain's telescope nearly broke up the love scenes yesterday afternoon.

He was at the class play given by the winter class of the High School at the Mason Operahouse. He had put his cardinal cap under the seat properly, had refrained from waving any loud flags, and had altogether conducted himself as a scholar and a gentleman. He continued to do so until the lovey-dovey part, which came in the middle of this solemn drama. It was a tense moment, a moment when maple syrup and quiet peace just coxed out from the very footlights. At the same time the blushing hero tremblingly reached for the bashful hardlands had me the blushing hero tremblingly eached for the bashful heroine's hand reached for the bashful heroine's hand there was a movement in the orchestra. Mephistopheles was reaching under his seat—and as he reached he began to draw forth the thing that nearly spoiled the show.

It was a telescope, It was no ordimary telescope, for it was hig enough to be of the refracting, spectroscopestrachment-variety that up-to-date astronomers use. With as much apparent effort as possible the tormentor focused the spyglass to his vision. Extending its portentious sections with many a rheumatic creak of fittings, he drew the gaze of the multitude. He didn't care, though, for, painstakingly watching the actors behind the footights, he himself was an unconscious Thespian.

The telescope was as long as—well.

Thespian.
The telescope was as long as—well, probably as long as many a sea serpent seen through its extremity by booxy marines, and it was brase bound. Its ancient black body merely served as a support for these glaring trimmings, fashing their shining rings in the darkened auditorium.

Some way, the love scene wasn't quite as effective after this living blograph arose. Impassioned sentences were altogether mixed with suppressed signes.

CREDITABLE WORK.

CREDITABLE WORK.

CREDITABLE WORK.

The feature of the programme was, of course, the presentation of "The Spy," dramatised some years ago by a number of the teachers, and staged yesterday under the direction of Miss Gertrude Hards, teacher of expression at the High School. The play is a great improvement upon previous efforts in some respects—noticeably costuming and scenic accessories. The Mason stage is, of course, better adapted to the proper presentation of any production than other thocal stages, chiefly on account, of its tremendous size, handsome scenery, and splendid lighting facilities.

The story of Cooper's famous novel of colonial days is well known to lovers of fiction, and its wholesome story of revolutionary men and maids was presented in five acts of eight scenes. The amateur actors and actresses gave evidence of careful study, systematic rehearsal and intelligent appreciation of their roles as character portrayals. Voices need to be brought out and stage stiffness done away with in all companies not professional, but yester-day's presentation was very creditable. Other features of the entertainment were orchestra numbers, given by the regular Mason Orchestra, the class president, August J. Marts.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

president, August J. Martz.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Notwithstanding the threatening clouds, the big audience gathered early, and stayed until late. Down in the front rows of the orchestra the summer class, arrayed in cardinal and white, made a preity spot of uniform color on the motley dress of the audience as a whole.

The cast of characters was as follows: Mr. Wharton, Carll Hunt; Miss Peyton (his sister.) Edna Z. Modle; Baran Wharton, his daughter, Ethel Parker; Frances Wharton, his daughter, Ethel Parker; Frances Wharton, his daughter, Ethel Mee; Capt. Wharton (his son, a British officer.) Charles H. Homer; Mr. Harper afterward Washington,) Edwin Adams; Harvey Birch (the apy.) Percy M. Lorraine; Capt. Lawton (of the Virginia horse,) N. Jerome Bowen; Maj. Dunwoodie (colonial officer.) Lawrence Bartlett; Col. Welmere (British officer.) Ernst Kimmel; Dr. Sitgreaves (army surgeon.) August J. Martz; Caesar (family servant.) Clarence Weber; Matron, Jane A. Hawk; Betty Flannigan (camp sutler.) Hilda J. Budington; Katy Haynes (housekeeper of Harvey Birch,) Elleen Salyer; minister, Richard Farrell; Lieut, Mason, N. Jerome Bowen; maids, La Delpha Durr and Nellie Haddock; leader of the gang, Edward Ortwyn; guesta, soldlers, guards, subalterns, etc.

BUILDING TOP COLLAPSED.

Fronts of Two Los Angeles Street res Fell Into Street Last Night, Endangering Pedestrians.

Softened by the rain and being of such construction that they would not have been able to stand any kind of a shock or shake, the fronts of three buildings on Los Angeles street, Nos. 371, 373 and 375, collapsed last even-ing, depositing tons of brick upon the sidewalk, greatly endangering passers-by and rendering adjoining buildings unsafe. The houses are the property of E. Germain and are one-story brick of E. Germain and are one-story brick structures, the copings of which over-hang the sidewalks. No. 371 is occu-pied by the Zaiser Produce Company and the other two by Vicker's poultry

After these stores had closed last evening and all of the employes had left, all of the brick copings fell to the sidewalk and pulled the copings of adjoining buildings out of line. From time to time other portions of the walls tumbled and last night the police stretched ropes across the sidewalks to prevent accidents.

DEACONESS HOME OPENED.

Active Work Commenced In Another Philanthropic Institution—Entire State Enlisted in the Work,

The Deaconess Home, just completed at the corner of Bellevue avenue and Juster street, by the Methodist Bpis-copal Church, South, was opened on Monday with Mrs. C. Price Brown in charge as matron.

The home is a finely-appointed nd every modern convenience. The romoters of the enterprise found bemselves unable to open it in the namer at first contemplated, owing the termination of their inability to command the caconesses. It was consequently laced in the hands of the Women's dissionary Society of the church in fouthern California, of which Mrs. Or. C. Jackson of South Bonnis Bractreet, this city, is president. An effort is being made to enlist the nicrost of the friends of the denomnation not only in Southern California, but throughout the State, and the nitre building will be equipped to do to the needy, though it is not to beto the needy, though it is not to become a rescue home.

One of the most important rooms in the building has been handsomely fitted up by Mrs. Emma Toberman. Others are now being furnished by the missionary auxiliaries of Trinity Church, Bellevue Church and West End Church. Still other individuals and church auxiliaries have taken rooms to furnish and it will probably be but a very short time until the home is completely furnished.

The building is delightfully located and will furnish a pleasant and healthful home to all who may be so fortunate as to there find a refuge. A fine half-tone picture of the building was printed in The Times some days ago.
